Astral Elf Names

Astral elf names shimmer with cosmic distance: ethereal, multi-syllabic, and strange. These are elves who've lived in the Astral Plane for millennia, and their names have drifted from mortal convention into something alien and luminous.

1. Astraea — Greek Mythology
   Goddess of innocence and purity, who became the constellation Virgo. Starlight made name.
2. Celestia — D&D Cosmology / Fantasy
   An outer plane of pure good. The name captures astral elf aspiration.
3. Orion — Greek Mythology
   The hunter constellation. Astral elves navigate by stars they've watched for epochs.
4. Vega — Astronomy
   One of the brightest stars. Astral elves often take star-names as earned titles.
5. Selenë — Greek Mythology
   Goddess of the moon — a celestial body that astral elves may have orbited for eons.
6. Aldebaran — Astronomy / Arabic
   The Follower — a red giant star. Astral elf names often reference celestial objects.
7. Zephyr — Greek Mythology
   The west wind. On the Astral Plane, wind is memory — this name carries that poetry.
8. Asteria — Greek Mythology
   Titan goddess of falling stars. Her name means 'starry one.'
9. Solais — Gaelic / Fantasy
   From Irish 'solas' meaning 'light.' An astral elf name that glows.
10. Cosmara — Fantasy Convention
    A constructed name blending 'cosmos' with elven naming patterns. Timeless and vast.
