TAVERN CROWD

Top 100 Male Half-Elf Names

When creating Half-Elf names, draw from both Elvish and Common linguistic roots. Elvish influences often include softer sounds like 'l', 'a', and 'e', while Common names tend to be more straightforward and robust, often featuring hard consonants. Aim for a mix of syllable structures, like combining a two-syllable Elvish first name with a one-syllable human surname, or vice versa. To reflect their dual heritage, consider using an elven middle name that honors one parent's lineage, such as "Aelar Thorne," where "Aelar" is the Elvish first name and "Thorne" is the human family name.
